

Jewish Historical Society of Napa Valley together with Napa County Historical Society present

In recognition of Black History Month, former Research Librarian at the Napa County Historical Society and Napa native, Alexandria Brown, discusses the history of African Americans in the Napa Valley from its earliest days. Photographs, documents and interesting stories round out this particularly rich but almost forgotten piece of Napa history.

Community Arts Center
(Lucky Penny Theatre)
1758 Industrial Way
Napa, CA

february 15

5:30pm

Free admission to this event.

Light refreshments will be served. Wine will be sold at this event.