

OCT.

16

The Jewish Historical Society of Napa Valley presents:

CHASING PORTRAITS

A Great-Granddaughter's Quest for Her Lost Art Legacy

Elizabeth Rynecki discusses her emotional journey to uncover the whereabouts of her great-grandfather Moshe Rynecki's artwork which all but disappeared during WWII. Elizabeth's quest has been documented in the newly published book "Chasing Portraits" as well as a documentary film by the same title which is in post production. * A limited number of books will be sold at this event ****

Congregation Beth Shalom

1455 Elm Street, Napa

info@jhsnv.org

Sunday, October 16th, 3 to 5pm

Free to JHSNV members / $5 donation public

