

DEC.

4

The ketubah is a special Jewish prenuptial agreement outlining the rights and responsibilities of marriage. Jews of Italy are known for their elaborately designed ketubot (plural). Rabbi Peretz Wolf-Prusan, Senior educator at Lehrhaus Judaica has been a ketubah scribe and illuminator. He will share examples and insights into these artistic covenantal documents.

ILLUMINATED ITALIAN KETUBOT: FANTASTICAL MARRIAGE DOCUMENTS

Presented by Rabbi Peretz Wolf-Pusan

Congregation Beth Shalom
1455 Elm Street, Napa

4 pm to 6pm

rsvp to Myrna David at Myrnadavid2014@gmail.com

Free to JHSNV Members. Suggested $5.00 donation for non-members.

